

MEMBERSHIP HAS ITS PRIVILEGES.

Here's a quick guide

YOUR ONLINE IHPI MEMBER PROFILE

We create a robust online profile for each IHPI member. Please take a moment to review yours and help us make it the best it can be. You can also explore the profile database to discover potential new collaborators!

RESEARCH COLLABORATIONS

IHPI knows the power of collaboration, and we give members access to a range of events and programs organized or co-sponsored by IHPI where you can connect with other faculty with similar interests. Some examples: our Research Seminar Series, annual Member Forum, Opioid Solutions Research Network, MPrOVE Innovation to Implementation (i2i) labs, as well as multiple social events.

EDUCATION & TRAINING

IHPI facilitates a wide array of Education & Training opportunities for faculty, including an RO1 Boot Camp and K Award Writing Workshop. You can also share your experience with the next generation of health services researchers by facilitating one of our student education sessions.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

IHPI offers seminars and training workshops for faculty at all levels, including an annual career development workshop organized by our Early Career Faculty Advisory Council. In addition, our Emerging Scholars Exchange Program provides career development opportunities for IHPI early career faculty at prestigious peer universities.

GRANT DEVELOPMENT SUPPORT

IHPI can provide pre-submission proposal planning consultations, editorial reviews of proposal drafts, and funding searches. We also maintain IHPI-specific grant documents for members who wish to highlight their IHPI affiliation in proposals. In addition to our K Writing Workshop and R01 Boot Camp, we offer K Mock Study Sections, and grant development “office hours” for individual consultations.

POLICY ENGAGEMENT & EXTERNAL RELATIONS

IHPI's Policy Engagement and External Relations team, with staff in Washington, DC and Ann Arbor, provides members with tools and resources to help them reach the right audiences and inform health policy and practice. Members can connect with us for an individual consultation to discuss policy engagement opportunities; how to connect with policymakers, influential organizations, and thought leaders; and how to translate and disseminate findings for external stakeholders.

COMMUNICATIONS

IHPI offers its members a broad array of communication support to disseminate research findings to external and internal stakeholders. We work to promote our members' work via social media, newsletters & media relations. We create lay-friendly materials, connect members to reporters seeking sources and coordinate with other U-M communicators.
